"Inclusion, Empathy and Innovation: Shaping Education for the Future"

which will take place in Katerini on October 17, 18, and 19, 2025, has decided to extend the deadline for paper submissions until Sunday, July 6, 2025.

This decision was made following requests from presenters who wish to publish their scientific work but are unable to submit it on time due to the increased workload involved in concluding the current school year.
